Annie Grimes
Office Support Specialist 2

Dear Ms. Grimes:

We have received the Certification of Health Care Provider form regarding your medical condition. Your doctor states you may be absent from work for treatments once every three weeks, and when your medical condition flares-up (twice every four to six months lasting five to ten days). Your medical treatments may reduce your work schedule to half days from 1/10/2010-6/10/2010.

In accordance with the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), we have granted you intermittent leave, for the condition(s) certified by the attending physician. A total of 12 weeks of FMLA leave per calendar year is granted. All leave designated as Family and Medical Leave will be subtracted from your 2010 FMLA entitlement.

Please be reminded employees needing intermittent leave for foreseeable (at least 30 days notice, two days notice for extenuating circumstances) medical reason (treatments, therapy, doctor's appointments) must schedule the leave so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operation. If you are absent due to an unforeseeable (e.g. transport daughter to the emergency room) medical reason, you may be required to submit medical documentation.

Furthermore, please note on your leave slip in the comments/reasons section "Sick family - (SF)" and the reason (e.g. treatments, physical therapy, etc.) when you take time off, due to your medical condition. Please make sure the reason stated is certified by the treating physician. If no reason is stated or the reason is not certified by the treating physician, the PAR coordinator may code your absence as annual, holiday, unauthorized or other available leave accruals. This will help us in calculating your leave usage and the payroll records will be accurately reflected.

While you are on intermittent leave, you may be required to produce a medical status report.

If your status changes, you are expected to keep the Department informed. Please be advised that you may be required to submit medical recertification if needed.

Attached is a Fact sheet from the Department of Labor explaining your rights and responsibilities under the Family and Medical Leave Act. Should you have any questions, please contact me at 305-876-7821.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Grimes:

As a result of the difficult fiscal challenges Miami-Dade County is experiencing, some departments have to reduce staff and eliminate positions. Due to these staffing reductions, we regret to inform you that your position has been impacted.

We reviewed your personnel records and confirmed that you do not have sufficient classified service rights to exercise at this time for any County position. Therefore, your last day of County service will be on November 1, 2010. However, if you wish, you may remain in active status for ten additional working days using your accrued annual and holiday leave or leave without pay as you complete your transition. Since you have previously earned classified service rights, your name will be placed on a Recall List for a period of two years.

Though we have very limited job openings at this time, we encourage you to visit the County's jobs website at www.miamidade.gov/jobs, for any available positions for which you can apply. Please note that for the next two years after separation from the County, you will be able to apply for "County Only" jobs through the jobs website. In addition, please consider registering with South Florida Workforce, Florida's official online job-matching service, at <http://www.southfloridaworkforce.com/w/EFMprocess.html>, for job search and other employment support services.

Most importantly, we urge you to visit the Human Resources website which provides a wealth of information, including an employee transition guide to resources, to assist you through this difficult period. The complete guide is available on the County's website at http://www.miamidade.gov/Assistance/assistance\_home.asp. If you have any questions regarding the transition process that cannot be answered by your Departmental Personnel Representative (DPR), please call Human Resources at 305-375-3346.

We sincerely appreciate your contributions to the County and its residents and we wish you the best in your future career endeavors.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Grimes,

Thank you for coming to see me last week. After discussing your case with the other lawyers in my office, we have concluded that due to the many EEOC charges and the long history, the government employer, the only way we could represent you is on an hourly rate basis, with an initial deposit of $7500. If you get us the deposit of $7500, we can open a file and get right to work for you.

Areas needing improvement;

Computer skills:

- You need to develop basic Microsoft Outlook skills. You must learn to send and receive e-mail with attachments, to file mail under folders, and to cut and past work orders and photos into e-mail. You must also learn how to save documents sent to you using the save-as function rather than the cut and past function. You must also learn to use spell check. You have expressed that e-mail is new to you and that you have not had other than limited e-mail exposure in previous jobs. You have experienced difficulty in getting your account started, and in organizing your screen. You are not yet familiar with preview options, filter options and how to negotiate from one function to another. Training has been provided to you as well as access to e-training. In addition you have been shown how to use the help function, and to request help by dialing the info systems help desk at extension 5900. You need to read and comprehend e-mail instructions completely before giving information to others.
- You need to learn to open and create documents in Microsoft excel and to update information in spreadsheets provided to you in this format. You have expressed that you have very limited experience with excel in your previous jobs and have been resistant to learning these skills. Since January 7th you have been provided access to E-training in excel as well as a suite of related topics. As of this date you have not been able to complete excel documents with required proficiency. As confirmed in your meeting with Chief of Administration Kelly Flores on 1/28/05 after your complaints to MDAD personnel about work tasks given to you, it is your responsibility to learn excel and other skills particular to required duties, even though they may not have been specifically mentioned in the initial job posting.
- You need to improve your skills in Microsoft word. Tables created and used must be transferable without corrupting and must use standard business formatting and recommended practices. You must use headers and footers when requested and align and wrap text in readable columns and rows. You must learn to use shadings, highlighting and desired fonts. You must also learn to use spell check and grammar check to replace misspelled text and to make corrections. You must develop an electronic filing system that enables you to find saved documents in a timely manner and a system for naming documents. You must learn to use the file save-as function to modify documents and preserve them in different versions and drafts. You must refrain from overuse and inappropriate use of Microsoft Draw to make tables and the unnecessary insertion of clip art and symbols instead of standard text elements.

- You need to continue to gain knowledge in work order processing including the use of the clone function, how to re-open closed work orders, how to properly close re-opened work orders. You must become familiar with special category codes, PM work orders, and the inventory and query functions.
- You must learn to use resources provided to you and to interact patiently and persistently with those whose task it is to provide you computer assistance. This includes the ability to use help functions loaded in computer programs, access technical assistance available at extension 5900, the ability to discuss and work through work order processing functions with programmers from info systems and maintenance planners, and your supervisor, and the ability to utilize the e-training function. During the 1st six weeks of the rating period you have had difficulty in understanding verbal instructions given in person, directions given over the phone from these sources, and written instructions given via e-mail. Your supervisor has had to sit at your computer and show you repeatedly how to perform basic functions such as log on, how to open a file, how to enter data, etc. In addition you have disrupted work of others by constantly calling them to come to your office and show you how to do things.

Filing and Clerical Skills:

- You must develop the ability to file documents and forms using prescribed methods so that you and your supervisor can find filed items when you are not available to provide them.
- You must be able to implement and continue a system of purging old files.
- You must utilize the existing follow-up regimen on work orders, requisitions, stock item requests, and correspondence and be able to translate follow up information compiled from files into new and / or existing reports after initial instruction. You must make copies of items while they are in transit.
- You must be able to track and follow-up on documents requiring authorization at various levels such as overtime requests, requests for checks, invoices, training requests, GBR projects, etc.
- You must take notes when instructions are given to you in order to remember clearly what has been said. You have had difficulty in understanding instructions and have repeatedly asked the same questions or variations of the same question. When you have been told to write down notes you have resisted.
- You must develop basic computational skills. You have been unable to sort basic numerical data and place it in a table form manually or by using the computer.
- You must become familiar with the Department's ISO 14001 initiative and your role in complying with the procedures related to environmental responsiveness.
- You must organize your activities to avoid constant disruption and switching from task to task. For instance, items to be copied can in most cases be placed in a folder and accomplished in a single trip to the copy machine once per day. Time for compiling information for reports has been prescribed and specific hours can be designated for that activity. E-mails and phone messages can be answered within time frames agreed to by your supervisor, etc. Time can be set aside for training and review of the days work. Instead, you have shown a tendency to jump from task to task as the phone rings, the item comes to your in-box. Take notes and save questions for a designated time and avoid disrupting others every few minutes to answer questions that pop into your head.

Interpersonal skills:

- I encourage you to focus on the task at hand when performing your duties and receiving training. You have shown a tendency for your attention to wander and get off track during training sessions and discuss news items, personal beliefs, or unrelated topics. When directions are given acknowledge that you heard & understand what is expected of you.
- When you have concerns or issues that you do not care to discuss with your supervisor go through the chain of command to get resolution within the Division. You have been introduced to the Interim Chief of Facilities Maintenance and Grounds, Jose Barroso, and the Chief of Maintenance Administration and Management Services, Kelly Flores.

During the next 3 months immediate and significant improvement is required. Your supervisor and support staff are here to assist you learning to work productively and to assist you with learning where your skills are not adequate. No one can do it for you or show you how to do the same thing again and again. You must do your part to learn and operate within the shop and within the County's policies and guidelines. Any question you may have please ask me for assistance first, and then those who I have indicated to you have expertise in the areas where you are deficient and are able to provide guidance.

INCIDENT or ACTION:

Ms. Grimes approached Ms. Flores desk in the morning of 5/3/05 and started to go through her papers on the desk. Ms. Flores advised her not to touch the papers on her desk if she needed anything she would get it for her. Ms. Grimes responded "Yes Mommy". Ms. Flores told Ms. Grimes not to call her Mommy, as this was disrespectful. Later in the morning Ms. Flores approached Ms. Grimes and Ms. Wachope to ask if they had any of the work log faxes that had come in the morning. Ms. Grimes once again used the phrase "No Mommy" and that she did not touch the fax because she was being treated like a child and with disrespect. Ms. Flores advised Ms. Grimes that she did not appreciate her using the word Mommy. They started a discussion at which point I Miguel Estevill interrupted and stated that I wanted to see them in my Office.

I met with both Ms. Grimes and Ms. Flores to address them both about the communications that had transpired between them both. Ms. Grimes stated that she thought Melissa was tainted with Prejudice and Hate. She thought Melissa was too young and didn't have enough experience. She further stated Melissa has an attitude and she doesn't want Annie here because of her prejudice and the fact that Annie is Black. Annie stated that Melissa has told her she is not doing a good job.

Melissa responded that Annie interrupts her while she tries to give instructions and she does not take notes. Melissa further stated that Annie continuously makes comments about her age stating she is too young and lacks experience. Melissa denied Annie's allegations about prejudice, she added that her parent is Black and she holds no prejudice against any race or religion. She stated God has made us all and there is no difference in color.

Mr. Estevill advised Annie that a charge of Prejudice is very serious and is not taken lightly. That Management was going to be advised and if she would like to meet with Mr. Barroso or file a formal charge it would be scheduled.

Annie stated that she did not want to do this at this time and that she felt more comfortable after our discussion of the matter. Mr. Estevill stated to Annie and Ms. Flores that it was not acceptable to speak to any one in a manner such as that used earlier with comments such as Mommy. Further Annie was advised that the work assignments that were given to her by Ms. Flores for distribution are directly given or ordered by the Superintendents.

RESULT or ACTION of EMPLOYER:

Mr. Barroso later met with all clerical staff (Ms. Wachope, Ms. Grimes and Ms. Flores in the presence of Mr. Estevill the Superintendent to discuss all issues and encourage Team Work participation by all office staff. He advised them that clerical staff must work out any differences between them in the office and improve communication or he would take whatever administrative action was required.

COMMENTS:

This was the second recorded incident concerning office clerical staff since Annie Grimes was transferred to this office. Mr. Wyatt was not available during this incident.

Ms. Flores stated that Mr. Ayhens was a witness to incident.

Ms. Flores stated that no one in the office had been rude to Ms. Grimes in any manner.

Ms. Flores stated that she had noticed Ms. Grimes contacting the work order center for instruction and direction on processing the work order assignments given to her instead of communicating with our office staff as directed previously.

Ms. Flores stated that Ms. Grimes has made comments to her that Ms. Flores is too young to tell her what to do.

Mrs. Garay

Ms. Garay stated she heard Ms. Grimes and Ms. Flores having a discussion concerning the proper procedure for filling out a leave slip. Ms. Garay stated that Ms. Flores was explaining to Ms. Grimes how to fill out the form.

Ms. Garay stated that Ms. Grimes is argumentative about assigned tasks.

Ms. Garay recalls that Ms. Flores had used the words common sense.

Ms. Garay stated that Ms. Grimes had closed work orders with no mistakes noted, but continuously asks the same questions regarding work processes.

Ms. Wachope

Ms. Wachope stated that Ms. Grimes won't listen to instructions or directions and continues to ask different people until she gets the answer she expects.

Ms. Wachope stated Ms. Flores was trying to explain to Ms. Grimes this morning how to fill a leave slip and Ms. Grimes was arguing about the procedures we used to fill out the form.

Ms. Wachope stated that Ms. Flores has displayed a negative attitude when speaking to Ms. Grimes in the past and Ms. Grimes has displayed same attitude towards Ms. Flores. Ms. Wachope stated that Ms. Grimes has not offered assistance during the office move and has had a negative attitude towards Ms. Wachope.

Ms. Wachope stated that Ms. Grimes was eating soup at approximately 2:30 p.m. on 2/28/05 while office staff was unpacking and organizing office move packages.

Ms. Wash-up stated that she asked Ms. Grimes when she was finished eating if she would assist her to move boxes. Ms. Grimes responded that she doesn't ever ask her to do things when she is not busy, but she would help her when she was finished eating. Ms. Wash-up replied that's what she had said.

Ms. Wachope stated that she had not heard Ms. Flores use the phrase use common sense.

Mr. Ayhens

Mr. Ayhens stated he observed that Ms. Grimes does not like to be told what to do by a 19 year old (Ms. Flores).

Mr. Ayhens stated that Ms. Flores was giving Ms. Grime's instructions this morning.

Mr. Ayhens stated that he noticed Ms. Flores was somewhat talking down to Ms. Grimes.

Mr. Ayhens stated that Ms. Grimes continues to use Ms. Wachope's computer without asking.

Mr. Ayhens stated that Ms. Grimes is set in her ways and does not like to be told what to do.

COMMENTS:

Mr. Wyatt and Mr. Estevill both concluded the following:

Ms. Grimes has difficulty following instructions. She has on numerous occasions gone about asking several members of staff the same questions. It is not clear whether it is due to a lack of understanding or she is searching for an answer that will satisfy her. The difficulty is evident when Ms. Flores explained the proper procedure in filling out a request for leave form and Ms. Grimes proceeded to ask Ms. Garay.

During our interview with her, she had difficulty in correctly using our names.

Ms. Grimes continuously asks different staff about using jeans in the office, when Mr. Wyatt and other staff have on several occasions advised her that it is not permitted by aviation department policy. She also had received a copy of the written departmental policies and procedures by Mr. Daniel Douglas on 2/01/05.

On February 25, 2005 Mr. Wyatt held a staff meeting with the clerical staff Ms. Flores, Ms. Wachope and Ms. Grimes. He outlined areas of responsibilities and specifically that the OSS 2 positions should address any concerns or questions through the chain of command which is Clerk 3, Superintendent, Chief of Facilities. Ms. Grimes has failed to follow the instruction of her Superintendent Neil Wyatt.

Additionally there appears to be a personality conflict between Ms. Grimes and Ms. Flores.

Supplemental of 3/3/05

According to Ms. Flores despite her attempts over the past few days to put the incident behind them, Ms. Grimes does not respond to Ms. Flores when she greets Ms. Grimes at the beginning of the day and on several occasions Ms. Grimes has sought instructions from Ms. Garay as opposed to Ms. Flores

Mr. Wyatt and Mr. Estevill met with Ms. Grimes on 03/03/05 to discuss our conclusions and concerns. Ms. Grimes stated that she was confused sometimes. Ms. Grimes additionally stated that Ms. Wachope and Ms. Flores never greeted her before and did not display common courtesy. She stated that she only spoke to Ms. Phillips as she was passing by our office. Mr. Wyatt and Mr. Estevill both met with staff after the meeting to discuss office policies and the need for professional courtesy and behavior.

QUANTITY OF WORK: Needs Improvement

When Annie was first assigned to this section she had difficulty properly following directions and satisfactorily completing work assignments. Incidents of resistance to training are recorded by Superintendent Douglass in her file as early as the second week of her employment and continue throughout the rating period. On January 11 she was advised of weaknesses in her ability to use Microsoft Excel. By January 19th, rather than accepting instruction, she challenged her supervisor as to what the job requirements for her position were and refused to perform or even try to learn to perform required tasks. Later similar learning resistance was displayed and documented regarding the use of the MDAD work order system, e-mail, and Microsoft word. During the rating period, Annie was transferred (at her request) and continued to have problems. Examples are incidents that were brought to her attention regarding failure to follow instructions from the Clerk 3 on March 1, which resulted in an investigation and fact finding meeting where it was concluded by Superintendents Estevill and Wyatt that "Ms. Grimes has difficulty following directions." Instead She would question other staff members repeatedly on the processes while not following basic instructions given to her.

Also documented in this rating period are repeated instances of inability to get along with coworkers. In addition to causing a loss of time and effort in tasks assigned specifically to Annie, the friction between coworkers resulted in lower output for others in the group. Instances of this inability to be a cooperative team member were as varied as Annie's solicitation of opinions from staff in conflict with management direction on dress code issues, to the inability to share the use of a copy machine, to the disrespectful statements made by Annie to others about Supervisors and coworkers.

The inability to properly follow instructions from superiors and / or work as part of a team with coworkers required repeated prolonged training sessions, and Superintendent and Chief level interventions to mediate disputes, which detracted from the productivity of those working in the section as a whole. Incidents of this nature are documented in her file on January 20th and May 3rd.

Finally, in this category, Annie began to show some proficiency in work order processing. However she continued to be reluctant to perform various other clerical duties such as data entry on spreadsheets. While she has shown some improvement in these areas, continued progress is required.

Annie Grimes, OSSII
SS# XXX-XX-XXXX

Period Covered
From XX/XX/XXXX – XX/XX/XXXX

QUALITY OF WORK:

Needs Improvement

During the first several months of this rating period Annie's accuracy was below the acceptable standards. She experienced difficulties in interpreting information on spreadsheets and was unable to perform some tasks requiring Microsoft Excel in a timely manner. She insisted on using tables in word documents using the draw function rather than using standard forms and formats required. She refused to take written notes on instructions given and insisted on using the work place to develop memory skills. Her memory skills were not adequate to the task. In work order processing she had initial difficulty reading and interpreting trouble call log sheets, which resulted in the creation of duplicate work orders while in the process of her assignment to open work orders, input pertinent data and then close the work order. While this was not entirely her fault, she should have been more attentive towards her work. This has inhibited her ability to achieve her objective of timely and accurate close out of work orders. Annie made some improvement in this area toward the end of the rating period.

WORK HABITS:

Needs Improvement

During this rating period Annie always arrived to work well before her scheduled start time and had only one unscheduled leave occurrence. Annie is aware of her break times and generally works well within the prescribed times. Annie had difficulties in completing her assignments within a reasonable time, this was due to a large extent to her lack of keeping notes on instructions she was given to reference when she was having difficulties. Annie improved during the rating period in her effectiveness in the closing out of work orders from various shops without the same difficulties she had originally experienced.

INTERPERSONAL SKILLS:

Needs Improvement

Annie had difficulties with interactions within the group; in both assignment locations covered during this rating period. She tended to want to do things based on her previous experience, which was not always consistent with current practices of the unit. At times she was less than cooperative and has had difficulties working with other members of the work group. This diminished the groups' moral. Specific instances and discussion of how this lack of cooperativeness and trust in management decisions impacted work flow are detailed in the "Quantity of Work" section of this evaluation.

RATER'S OVERALL EVALUATION:

Needs Improvement

Re-evaluate in 3 months.

IN WHAT WAYS CAN OR MUST THE EMPLOYEE IMPROVE PERFORMANCE:

Towards the latter part of this rating period Annie became more secure with the work order system and experienced in its use. Her duties were narrowed to this specific task and consequently her level of proficiency improved. To a large extent most of her difficulties were due to her lack of understanding of the system and inability to consistently follow instructions and procedures specifically with the processing of work orders and her reluctance to take written notes. Currently she is capable of working independently through the process with few exceptions. Annie needs to continue to focus on the various nomenclature used by the various shops for continued improvement.

In other clerical skills, Annie must become more technically proficient. Annie should enroll in various computer courses offered by the Department and study on her own to enhance her skills in Word, and Excel.

Of equal importance, the Office Support Specialist 2 position requires a continuing ability to adapt to new situations, follow directions, accept instruction and constructive criticism from superiors, and even supervise entry level clerks. During this rating period Annie has displayed severe deficiencies in these areas. In order to become successful in the short time remaining in her probation, she must modify her behavior to become less defensive personally, and critical of management direction and intentions generally. She must develop professional and respectful communication skills coupled with appropriate demeanor, wear appropriate office attire, and develop a friendly customer service attitude. Annie must learn to listen with an open mind and take notes of what is told to her. She could benefit from customer service training and other classes such as "conflict resolution" offered by the Department.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

CASE NO. 10-23996-CIV-JORDAN

ANNIE GRIMES,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MIAMI-DADE COUNTY AVIATION, et al.

Defendant.

DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS

This action purports to allege an employment discrimination claim by Plaintiff under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act. In the first line of the Complaint form it states that "plaintiff sues defendant(s); Miami Dade County Aviation and Housing Agency." [D.E. 1, p.2].

Miami-Dade County Aviation and the Miami-Dade County Housing Agency are both departments of Miami-Dade County. As departments of Miami-Dade County, neither are proper defendants because neither are entities capable of being sued. Additionally, while the statement in the Complaint identifying who is being sued clearly identifies the only defendants being sued as the Aviation Department and Housing Agency, because the caption and the summons mention William Candela, an Assistant County Attorney, in an abundance of caution, it is respectfully requested that Mr. Candela's name be stricken from the style of the case.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

A. The Complaint Must Be Dismissed Because the Defendants Plaintiff Has Sued -- the Aviation Department and Housing Agency -- are Departments of Miami-Dade County That Must Be Dismissed Because Neither Is *Sui Juris

The Aviation Department and the Housing Agency are departments of the government of Miami-Dade County, a political subdivision of the State of Florida. Just like the County's police department was dismissed in Masson v. Miami-Dade County, 738 So.2d 431 (Fla. 3d DCA 1999), the Complaint must be dismissed because the Aviation Department and the Housing Agency are improper defendants.

B. Individual Employee Cannot Be Sued Under Title VII

To the extent that William Candela, employed by Miami-Dade County as an Assistant County Attorney was intended by Plaintiff to be named as a defendant, his name should be stricken from the style of the case because of insufficiency of service of process under F.R.C.P. 4 because he was not personally served. Additionally, even if he had been served, Mr. Candela should not be listed in the Complaint as a defendant because individual employees may not be sued under Title VII because they are not Plaintiff's employer. See Albra v. Advan, Inc., 490 F.3d 826, 833 (11th Cir. 2007)(noting "that this court has held that there is no individual liability for violations of Title VII" and citing cases). Accordingly, to the extent Mr. Candela is listed as a defendant in this action, his name should be removed from this Complaint.

Finally, because the Plaintiff in the jurisdictional statement did not sue Miami-Dade County, the County believes that it is not required at this time to serve a responsive pleading. If the Court determines otherwise, Miami-Dade County requests that pursuant to the operation of Rule 12(a)(4), of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure that it not be required to file a responsive pleading to the Complaint until after the disposition of this motion by the Court and the filing of an amended complaint in which Plaintiff explicitly sues Miami-Dade County.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that the Complaint be dismissed.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNIE L. GRIMES,

Plaintiff,

vs.

RESPONSE TO MOTION TO DISMISS AND MOTION TO AMEND COMPLAINT

The Plaintiff, Annie Grimes, responds to the Motion to Dismiss and states that this action arises from a charge of employment discrimination under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Because neither Miami-Dade County Housing nor Miami Dade County Aviation were the proper agencies to file against, and William Candela, Assistant County Attorney, should not have been served. Plaintiff respectfully requests that the judicial system and judge who was assigned to my case allow me to amend the complaint explicitly to Miami Dade County as a defendant.

There is no confusion about the charges of this case, including discrimination and retaliation. Miami-Dade County has a long history of mistreating me because of not liking me which I believe violates my Constitutional rights--all because I filed charges against Miami Dade County. As of December 31, 2010, no copy of the Motion to Dismiss was received by me, which I feel displays an attitude of not wanting to recognize me. Also, they seem to feel above the law and I am nobody.

If the court allows me the opportunity to present my evidence, I feel I can prove my case. I am not an attorney, but I know when I have been discriminated against, and there is no other way I know how to fight but by the laws of employment discrimination because that is the right way my conscience is before God.

Back to Mr. William Candela being 'out to get' someone, no, that is not me. I do not know the letter of the law as he and the Judge do, so I handled the matter from what I know to be the right way, but if you take note of the first papers I submitted to the Court you will see I put Miami-Dade County. I am sorry if I caused any harm to Assistant County Attorney William Candela. I just want to get justice—not a person.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff respectfully requests this Honorable Court deny the Motion to Dismiss and allow the Plaintiff to amend the Complaint.

Respectfully submitted,

DEFENDANTS' RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO AMEND THE COMPLAINT

Plaintiff filed a response to the motion to dismiss and in her response she also filed a motion to amend the Complaint to remove the Aviation Department, the Housing Agency and the Williams Candela as defendants. While Miami-Dade County ("the County") does not concede that Plaintiff has a valid cause of action against it, the County agrees that Plaintiff should be permitted to file an amended complaint that removes the Aviation Department, the Housing Agency and William Candela as defendants in this action and therefore has no objection to Plaintiff's motion to amend. Should the Court grant the motion to amend, the County respectfully requests that it be granted fourteen (14) days from the date of the Court's order to file a response to an amended complaint.

ANNIE GRIMES,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MIAMI-DADE COUNTY,

DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS AMENDED COMPLAINT AND INCORPORATED MEMORANDUM OF LAW

Defendant Miami-Dade County ("the County") moves to dismiss the amended complaint pursuant to Rules 8(a), 10 and 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and states as follows:

Plaintiff filed a complaint against several defendants other than the County. Plaintiff requested and received permission from the Court to file an amended Complaint and has served that Amended Complaint on the County.

The Amended Complaint must be dismissed because it fails to state a claim against the County for employment discrimination under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act in violation of Rules 8(a), 10 and 12(b)(6) in that it does not set forth a short plain statement of facts that demonstrates that the Plaintiff is entitled to relief and does not provide for numbered paragraphs. Instead, the three-page complaint merely mentions a history of alleged discrimination, a request for records that she alleged not to have before a meeting and then concludes that she suffered a history of discrimination. Although Plaintiff is pro se, she must allege more than that to state a claim. Accordingly, the Amended Complaint must be dismissed.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

A. The Amended Complaint Must Be Dismissed Because It Fails To Comply With Even the Most Basic Pleading Standards

The Amended Complaint merely makes conclusory allegations about discrimination and retaliation with not even a skeleton of facts to demonstrate that she has a plausible claim against the County for employment discrimination under Title VII. Thus, the Amended Complaint fails to comply with Rule 8(a) requirement of a short and plain statement of the facts. Additionally, the Amended Complaint fails to comply with Rule 10 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure because the Amended Complaint is a rambling narrative not separated into paragraphs and counts.

To properly state a claim, a complaint must contain a "short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2). The Supreme Court has recently clarified that while the pleading standard of Rule 8 "does demand "more than an un-adorned, the-defendant-unlawfully-harmed-me accusation." Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. ___, 129 S.Ct. 1937, 1949, 173 L.Ed. 868 (2009)((quoting Bell Atlantic Corp., v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555, 127 S.Ct. 1955, 167 L.Ed. 929 (2007))). More to the point, the court explained that "to survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to 'state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.'" Id. (quoting Twombly, 550 U.S. at 570, 127 S.Ct. 1955). Although pro se pleadings are given some leeway, a pro se litigant's complaint must comply with the pleading rules set forth above.

In this case, the Amended Complaint fails to meet the minimum pleading standards in that it fails to set forth even the bare minimum of facts to establish the elements of a Title VII claim. Faced with a complaint similar to the Amended Complaint here, a District Court recently granted a motion to dismiss on the same grounds sought in this motion. See Washington v.

Sprint Food Stores, Inc., 2010 WL 5463137 (N.D. Ga. Dec. 2, 2010)(dismissing pro se litigant's Title VII claim for failure to meet basic pleading requirements of Rule 8).

Additionally, the Amended Complaint does not even allege that she received a right-to-sue letter. A plaintiff must allege that all conditions precedent have been satisfied which in a Title VII action requires that the plaintiff be issued a right-to-sue letter and that the action be filed timely after receipt of the right-to-sue letter. Since the Amended Complaint did not allege such compliance, it must be dismissed for failure to allege timely compliance with this critical condition precedent. See 42 U.S.C. §2000e-5(f)(1).

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that the Amended Complaint be dismissed.

RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS AMENDED COMPLAINT

(TITLE OF DOCUMENT)

I, Annie Grimes, plaintiff or defendant, in the above styled cause, file this response to defendant Miami-Dade County's motion to dismiss the amended complaint.

The defendant requests that my amended complaint be dismissed because it fails to state a claim against it for employment discrimination under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, because it does not provide a short and plain statement of facts showing I am entitled to relief and my statements are not separated into paragraphs and counts. Additionally, the defendant states my amended complaint does not allege that I received a right-to-sue letter.

My amended complaint does state a claim for employment discrimination under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act and I have already provided the Court with a right-to-sue letter.

In order to fix the problems with my amended complaint, I respectfully ask the Court to allow me to file a second amended complaint. Attached is the proposed second amended complaint.

3. I filed an EEOC charge regarding this and received a right-to-sue letter dated August 11, 2010. Attached is a copy of the right-to-sue letter regarding EEOC Charge No. 846-2009-02802. I filed my original complaint in federal court on November 4, 2010, well within the 90 days allowed under the law.

The plaintiff, Annie L. Grimes in the above styled cause, sues defendant(s) Miami -Dade County

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended for employment discrimination. Title VII forbids employers from retaliating or from taking adverse personnel action against, employees who exercise their lawful and protected rights under Title VII.

(Statement of facts)

3. I filed an EEOC charge regarding this and received a right-to-sue letter dated August 11, 2010. Attached is a copy of the right-to-sue letter regarding EEOC Charge No. 846-2009-02802. I filed my original complaint in federal court on November 4, 2010, well within the 90 days allowed under the law.

THE EEOC IS CLOSING ITS FILE ON THIS CHARGE FOR THE FOLLOWING REASON:

The facts alleged in the charge fail to state a claim under any of the statutes enforced by the EEOC.

Your allegations did not involve a disability as defined by the Americans With Disabilities Act.

The Respondent employs less than the required number of employees or is not otherwise covered by the statutes.

Your charge was not timely filed with EEOC; in other words, you waited too long after the date(s) of the alleged discrimination to file your charge.

The EEOC issues the following determination: Based upon its investigation, the EEOC is unable to conclude that the information obtained establishes violations of the statutes. This does not certify that the respondent is in compliance with the statutes. No finding is made as to any other issues that might be construed as having been raised by this charge.

The EEOC has adopted the findings of the state or local fair employment practices agency that investigated this charge.

RESPONSE TO SECOND AMENDED CAMPLAINT

In order to fix the problems with my amended complaint, I respectfully ask the court to allow me to file a second amended complaint.

The Plaintiff, Annie L. Grimes, responds to the Motion to Dismiss second amended complaint of employment discrimination under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Because it fails to state against it employment discrimination under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, because it does not separated in paragraphs and counts. Additionally, the defendant states my amended complaint does not allege that I received a right-to-sue- letter. My amended complaint does state a claim for employment under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act and I have already provided the Court with a right-to-sue letter.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

CASE NO. 10-23996-CIV-JORDAN

ANNIE GRIMES,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MIAMI-DADE COUNTY,

Defendant.

DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS THIRD AMENDED COMPLAINT
AND SUPPORTING MEMORANDUM OF LAW

Defendant Miami-Dade County ("the County") moves to dismiss the amended complaint pursuant to Rules 8(a), 10 and 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and states as follows:

Plaintiff filed a complaint against several defendants other than the County. Plaintiff requested and received permission from the Court to amend the Complaint several times and now has filed a Third Amended Complaint.

The Third Amended Complaint must be dismissed because it fails to state a claim against the County for employment discrimination under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act in violation of Rules 8(a) and 12(b)(6) in that it does not set forth a short plain statement of facts that demonstrates that the Plaintiff is entitled to relief.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

A. The Third Amended Complaint Must Be Dismissed Because It Fails To Comply With Even the Most Basic Pleading Standards

The Third Amended Complaint merely makes conclusory allegations and does not allege even the most basic facts to demonstrate that she has a plausible claim against the County under Title VII. Thus, the Amended Complaint fails to comply with Rule 8(a) requirement of a short and plain statement of the facts.

To properly state a claim, a complaint must contain a "short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2). The Supreme Court has recently clarified that while the pleading standard of Rule 8 "does demand "more than an un-adorned, the-defendant-unlawfully-harmed-me accusation." Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. ___, 129 S.Ct. 1937, 1949, 173 L.Ed. 868 (2009)((quoting Bell Atlantic Corp., v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555, 127 S.Ct. 1955, 167 L.Ed. 929 (2007))). More to the point, the court explained that "to survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to 'state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.'" Id. (quoting Twombly, 550 U.S. at 570, 127 S.Ct. 1955). Although pro se pleadings are given some leeway, a pro se litigant's complaint must comply with the pleading rules set forth above.

In this case, the Amended Complaint fails to meet the minimum pleading standards in that it fails to set forth even the bare minimum of facts to establish the elements of a Title VII claim. Indeed, the entire operative section of the Third Amended Complaint appears in one sentence in paragraph 2 that barely spans two lines and it fails to allege what the protected activity was, when it occurred and what she was demoted to and when that occurred. Dates are critical in responding to retaliation claims. The absence of even a month or a year when such actions allegedly occurred renders this complaint deficient. And deficient pleading should be dismissed. See Washington v. Sprint Food Stores, Inc., 2010 WL 5463137 (N.D. Ga. Dec. 2, 2010)(dismissing pro se litigant's Title VII claim for failure to meet basic pleading requirements of Rule 8). Now that the Plaintiff has been given several opportunities to amend the Complaint and still has not stated a claim, the Third Amended Complaint should be dismissed with prejudice.

B. The Third Amended Complaint must be Dismissed Because It Is Out

In addition to the fundamental pleading deficiencies in the Third Amended Complaint, it suffers from an even more important and insurmountable flaw. The Third Amended Complaint in paragraph 2 claims that Plaintiff was demoted at some indeterminate time in retaliation for some indeterminate protected activity. Plaintiff attaches a right-to-sue letter and an EEOC Charge to purport to satisfy the condition precedent to bring the claim in paragraph 2 that she was demoted. There is one huge problem with this. The claim in the Third Amended Complaint is outside the scope of the EEOC Charge upon which the Plaintiff received a right-to-sue from the EEOC.

It is well established that a judicial complaint under Title VII is limited by the scope of the EEOC Charge on which it is based. Ray v. Freeman, 626 F.2d 439, 443 (5th Cir. 1980). After a party has filed a Charge with the EEOC, any subsequent judicial proceeding is limited by the nature of the charges filed with the EEOC. See Buzzi v. Gomez, 62 F. Supp.2d 1344, 1351-53 (S.D. Fla. 1999)(Gold, J.)(holding that claims for acts of alleged retaliation such as denial of promotion, denial of a transfer and denial of training occurring after the filing of the EEOC Charge were not reasonably related to the EEOC Charge and were required to be dismissed for failure to exhaust administrative remedies); see generally Forehand v. Florida State Hosp., 89 F.3d 1562, 1567 (11th Cir. 1996)(stating that administrative remedies must be exhausted before an employee may pursue a Title VII employment discrimination claim). See also Lieberman v. Miami-Dade County, 2000 WL 1717649 (S.D. Fla. 2000). In Lieberman, which was a case involving Miami-Dade County, the Court stated that:

The aggrieved may not complain to the EEOC of only certain instances of discrimination and then seek judicial relief for different instances of discrimination. This limitation is consistent with the principle of primary jurisdiction in the agency, for it gives the employer some warning of the conduct about which the employee was aggrieved, and it affords the agency and the employer an opportunity to attempt conciliation without resort to the courts.

Lieberman (quoting Rush v. McDonald's Corp., 966 F.2d 1104, 1110 (7th Cir.1992)). Thus, the allegations in the EEOC Charge control the scope of a judicial action.

Here the EEOC Charge on which Plaintiff relies upon to provide the condition precedent to this lawsuit makes no allegation regarding the Plaintiff being demoted. The EEOC Charge makes some general allegation about a fitness for duty examination and that is it. A demotion, such as is alleged in the Third Amended Complaint, is the type of employment action that is known as a discrete action and it must be contained in a timely filed charge of discrimination. See generally Nat'l R.R. Passenger Corp. v. Morgan, 536 U.S. 101, 114, 122 S.Ct. 2061, 153 L.Ed.2d 106 (2002) (noting that a failure to promote qualified as a "discrete act[ ]" constituting a separate unlawful discriminatory practice and that plaintiff "can only file a charge to cover discrete acts that 'occurred' within the appropriate time period."). Accordingly, because the Third Amended Complaint is premised on a demotion that is not alleged in the EEOC Charge upon which the Plaintiff received a right-to-sue, this case should be dismissed for failure to comply with the condition precedent of having a timely filed EEOC Charge.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons and in light of the multiple chances Plaintiff has received to correct the complaint, it is respectfully requested that the Third Amended Complaint be dismissed with prejudice.

Respectfully submitted,

PLAINTIFF, RESPONSE TO MOTION TO DISMISS THIRD AMENDED COMPLAINT AND SUPPORTING MEMORANDUM OF LAW

The Plaintiff, Annie L. Grimes, responds to the Motion to Dismiss and states that this action arises from a charge of employment discrimination under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Again I am respectfully asking that the court not dismissed my complain, because of my limited understanding of the law of the case as state by Miami-Dade County I feel and know that all statements of fact that I have given to the court with copies that supported my claim is true and correct and contain factual information. However, at this time my understanding with past experiences with a person who was highly educated in law lead me to make a decisions that giving too much detail about the case would be in my best interest so please bear with me I will give a little more detail about my case but short and hope this will help the court in their decision not to dismissed the third amended complaint.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW, WHAT I THINK MIAMI-DADE COUNT WANT
RETALIATION

On November 04, 2010 charges #846-2009-02802, again I participated in activity protected by Title VII. When I filed a previous charge against Miami-Dade County after I was re-rehired as Settlement agreement said I would. Works assigned that had important behind it was taken always from me by upper management as I learned later, not only was the works taking always but it was given to persons who I have name of and these co-worker was not in good standing with their department at that time, also not as experience as I was could not past a typing test which Miami-Dade County required for a job were you need to type but works assigned was taken because I participated in activity of Title VII. All of the employee's was not of my national origin I had a meeting with upper management about these charges I filed that they called me in and said I would be given more important works would be assigned to me later, it never happen instead I became an object of laughter by upper management during this meeting and also, suggested that I see Miami-Dade County Psychologist for a head check, after the meeting I ask for the phone number did not give it to me. Miami-Dade County try to sidestepping the law on Title VII by telling EEOC that there was no charges filed. But I got that straight out by calling Mr. Dennis Kendrick at (305) 808-1807, which he agreed with them at first. Miami-Dade County continue to mistreated me and retaliated against me, also demoted was taken always from me because the employee's given the work was young them me and not of my national origin. I have had several conversations with downtown as well. (Date of Action March and April)

DATED of Violation (A.G.)

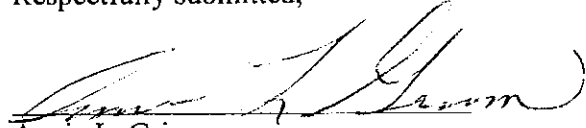

RETALIATION (DISABILITY AND AGE) TITLE VII DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990

I was told to go over and do some filing for upper management in building#3030 for the employee that was hired off the street and she had less experience than I had and young than me also, not of my origin (American Black) but black the computer system that we work on peoples-soft which required you to type she was <sup>Not</sup> tested to type by Miami-Dade County rules. I was in the Family Medical Leave plan because of Arthritis in my right hip at time I could not walk longer distance like I was before and sometime pain was great that I would miss work that will I contact Sharon Weeks and joint this plan. My doctor ok it as I visit him several times before with the complaint about the pain was I was accepted in the plan from my doctor reported. The day I was send to filed my leg went into pain I called Sharon weeks at (305) 876-7821 for advised on how the plan go with these type of assigned works and that I was not able to do this without going into pain and it was shortly after that that I received a call from Kelley Flores stating that the plan did not cover that, then I call up Bobbie Phillips at (305) 876 – 0639 she them state that they could send me for a test for “fit-For-Duty” and I would not be coming back. Justice involves treating people according to what is fair and right I have not experience this with Miami-Dade County instead was tread bad because I filed those charges of my Civil right

VII. *Date of Action August, E-mail To support
This was Attach was given ALREADY. (A.G.)*

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff respectfully requests this Honorable Court deny the Motion to Dismiss and allow the Plaintiff to amend the Complaint.

CASE NO. 10-23996-CIV-JORDAN

ANNIE GRIMES,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MIAMI-DADE COUNTY,

Defendant.

DEFENDANT'S REPLY MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS THIRD AMENDED COMPLAINT

Defendant Miami-Dade County ("the County") file this memorandum of law in support of its motion to dismiss and in reply to Plaintiff's opposition to Defendant's motion to dismiss the Third Amended Complaint and states as follows:

I. Despite Four Chances Plaintiff Still Has Not Alleged A Plausible Legal Claim

Plaintiff has now filed four complaints in this action and has yet to adequately set forth a viable claim upon which relief can be granted. Plaintiff's response fails to controvert the well established case law cited in the motion to dismiss. See Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. ___, 129 S.Ct. 1937, 1949, 173 L.Ed. 868 (2009)((quoting Bell Atlantic Corp., v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555, 127 S.Ct. 1955, 167 L.Ed. 929 (2007))("to survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to 'state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.'" Id. (quoting Twombly, 550 U.S. at 570, 127 S.Ct. 1955)). See also Washington v. Sprint Food Stores, Inc., 2010 WL 5463137 (N.D. Ga. Dec. 2, 2010)(dismissing pro se litigant's Title VII claim for failure to meet basic pleading requirements of Rule 8).

II. The Third Amended Complaint Is Barred Because It Is Outside The Scope of the EEOC Charge

The Third Amended Complaint must also be dismissed for the additional reason that the bare bones allegations in the Third Amended Complaint are outside the scope of the EEOC Charge upon which Plaintiff received a right-to-sue letter from the EEOC.

Plaintiff has failed to adequately controvert this argument and also failed to controvert the case law and arguments on this point that were cited in the motion to dismiss. See e.g. Nat'l R.R. Passenger Corp. v. Morgan, 536 U.S. 101, 114, 122 S.Ct. 2061, 153 L.Ed.2d 106 (2002) (noting that a failure to promote qualified as a "discrete act[ ]" constituting a separate unlawful discriminatory practice and that plaintiff "can only file a charge to cover discrete acts that 'occurred' within the appropriate time period."); Forehand v. Florida State Hosp., 89 F.3d 1562, 1567 (11th Cir. 1996)(stating that administrative remedies must be exhausted before an employee may pursue a Title VII employment discrimination claim); Ray v. Freeman, 626 F.2d 439, 443 (5th Cir. 1980); Lieberman v. Miami-Dade County, 2000 WL 1717649 (S.D. Fla. 2000)("The aggrieved may not complain to the EEOC of only certain instances of discrimination and then seek judicial relief for different instances of discrimination."); Buzzi v. Gomez, 62 F. Supp.2d 1344, 1351-53 (S.D. Fla. 1999)(holding that claims for acts of alleged retaliation such as denial of promotion, denial of a transfer and denial of training occurring after the filing of the EEOC Charge were not reasonably related to the EEOC Charge and were required to be dismissed for failure to exhaust administrative remedies). Plaintiff's opposition does not even address this case law and just rambles on regarding matters that have nothing to do with this important threshold issue. Accordingly, because the Third Amended Complaint is premised on a demotion that is not alleged in the EEOC Charge upon which the Plaintiff received a right-to-sue, this case should be dismissed for failure to comply with the condition precedent of having a timely filed EEOC Charge.

Finally, Plaintiff has been given several chances to meet the basic pleading requirements and to set forth a viable claim that satisfies the requirement to exhaust the administrative procedures with the EEOC. Plaintiff has not corrected these flaws despite having four chances and at least as it relates to the exhaustion issue, Plaintiff cannot correct these flaws. Thus, after all those chances, this case should be dismissed with prejudice. See e.g., Hopkins v. St. Lucie County School Board, 2010 WL 3995824 (11th Cir. Oct. 13, 2010)(affirming dismissal of pro se litigant's first Title VII complaint); Singletary v. Haskell Company, 2009 WL 2604587 (M.D. Fla. 2009)(granting motion to dismiss with prejudice of Title VII pro se litigant's Third Amended Complaint because of deficient pleading and because the claims were not within the scope of the EEOC Charge).

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons and in light of the multiple chances Plaintiff has received to correct the complaint, it is respectfully requested that the Third Amended Complaint be dismissed with prejudice.
